

Skillizen Olympiad Foundation, Singapore

Presents

A Harvard University Alumnus Initiative

Dear Parent,

You must be aware that, UNICEF, UNESCO, WHO, and world's leading school boards have advocated the transferring of Life Skills to students during the molding stages of their life. Converging with that direction, "Skillizen Olympiad Foundation, Singapore" a Harvard University Alumnus Initiative is proud to offer the opportunity for your child to participate in a set of 4 online Olympiads covering a wide range of critical life skills that can enhance the real-world readiness of children in the 21st century.

Olympiads test time : 9:30am to 9:30pm

Last year, students from over 3000 progressive schools from 70+ countries, participated in the Life Skills Olympiad and this year parents have started registering their children for the above 4 Olympiads.

We strongly believe that participation in the entire range of Life Skills Olympiads will work as a trigger for your children to appreciate and acquire critical life skills. Please find attached a detailed brochure for your reference. Please note that these olympiads will be held online over weekends, hence it will offer great convenience to students all over the world, for participating in this global test from home. The registration fee per Olympiad of US$7.99 or equivalent in your currency includes unlimited access to online SkillsGuide, Real-Life Scenario Bank, and Mock Tests.

The Ultimate Reward is getting to know where your child stands in the world!

Besides grand prizes like branded laptops, hi-tech tablets, Amazon Kindle, and global recognition, the ultimate reward of participating in these Olympiads is a personalized and insightful Life Skills Index report that will enlighten you about the current real-world skill gaps of your children. Every Participant will also be receiving a certificate and a guaranteed prize of 1years newzworm subscription worth US$10/-

If you would like to have more information about registering your children, please do visit www.lifeskillsolympiad.org, email to info@lifeskillsolympiad.org, or call +91-8750679770.
